

OPEN STAGE 17

Sunday 06/9/2026 στις 11:00 – 12:00

The General State Archives of Greece: Managing and Preserving Public Administration Records – A Major Challenge.

The Ministry of Education, Religious Affairs and Sports and the General State Archives (GAK) are organizing an event on the management and preservation of public administration records and the decisive role of the General State Archives in safeguarding the country's administrative and institutional memory.

The event will focus on the contemporary challenges involved in the management, supervision, and long-term preservation of public archives, as well as the important work of their digitization and its contribution to the broader digital transformation of public administration.

Speakers:

- Dimitris P. Sotiropoulos, Chairman of the Board of the General State Archives and Professor of Modern Political History at the University of the Peloponnese
- Amalia Pappa, Director General of the General State Archives
- Anastasia Dikopoulou, Head of the Department for the Supervision of Active and Semi-Active Archives, Selection, Intake and Disposal of Inactive Archives at the Central Service of the General State Archives – Operational Coordinator for the Digital Action of GAK

• Coordination: Yannis Glavinas, Deputy Head of the Department of Promotion, Communication and Educational Activities at the Central Service of the General State Archives